

I feel the Indiana No-call list is vital to protecting my rights to privacy and unsolicited and undesired harassment. If I need service from a company I already deal with I will call them. I will drop all services with all of the Banks that currently provide me services if thier support for this petition is not withdrawn.